“ One sweet memory I have of Cherie , is when she would just slowly walk up to me and give me the biggest hug. It was so sweet when she would do it. You can't give that kind of love, unless it is given to you. Love you Cherie, rest in heaven until we see each other again.

“ Listen! My big cousin Cherie was not to be messed with. We are a family of girls and she let it be known she was the eldest and she wasn't having it. She was a Powell... we love and protect hard. I was talking to another cousin and although she will be missed we found comfort in knowing she got the biggest hug from Her grandmommie, Her Uncle Bernie, Her lil Big cousin Ron, and Her Aunties Linda and Caroyle . She is well loved there and suffering no more. We didn't get to see her much in her latter adult life, but the love ain't never went anywhere. Your memory will live on Big 'little' Cousin.

Love always,
Brandi Powell

“ From Dad and Margie: DAUGHTER you gave no one a last farewell, nor ever said good-bye. You were gone before we knew it, and only God knows why. A million times we will miss you, a million times we will cry. In our hearts you hold a place, no one else can ever fill. It broke our hearts to lose you, but you didn't go alone, for part of us went with you, the day God took you home. We will meet again someday, I know in a better place. I think God he made you our daughter while you were here on earth. Loved beyond words missed beyond measure, always and forever in our hearts. We will always love you our sweet Cherie Amore.... Dad and Margie

“ From Cocoa: Don't think of Cherie as gone away, her journey's just begun, life holds so many facets this earth is only one. Just think of her as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years. Think how she must be wishing that we could know today how nothing but our sadness can really pass away. And think of her as living in the hearts of those she touched...for nothing loved is ever lost and she was loved so much... Always, auntie Cocoa, auntie Sharon, Porcha, and Ed

“ From Charmane: Be not burdened with times of sorrow. Cherie, we wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. Cherie, time seemed all too brief, don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your heart and share with Cherie. God wanted her now, so he set her free. With love, Charmane and family

“ From Charmeka: My deepest condolences to uncle Michael, Sharon, and all of Cherie's sisters! I haven't seen or talked to Cherie in years, however I will never forget the positive good energy she had when she came around. She was grandmommie's first grandchild, my strong big cousin. I loved our conversations about all her boyfriends, bad kids in the family and how we need to be respectful and how she would whoop us if she needed to! I will also remember how she would blink and squint her eyes if we said something sassy. My heart aches knowing that she's not physically here. But I know she's resting peacefully! Never forgotten, till we meet again. Rest easy big cousin, Meka
