“ We're praying for Christopher Neal's family. We're praying that the Lord encourage your heart and comfort you all during this time. May He give you strength to endure. Chris is a great friend to those who truly knew him. He was goofy at times, but a real sweet and loving person. He didn't put up with any mess from anyone. It didn't matter how long you've gone without seeing him; as his friend he would pick up where you left off within your friendship. I love and cherish his sister and one of my close childhood friends, Charlotte. I've known them since we went to Pearl C. Anderson and on to BMC. We had some great times in school especially in the Executorium!!! Be encouraged family.
