“ I used to work with Jeremy. It’s crazy I’m saying used to now. I had just saw him when i went to the library the week prior. It was a quick conversation. While working with him I got to know a little bit about him. He likes to

- Travel with his family
- Listen to lil uzi ( which i found hilarious at the time ) I was just picking at him about that lol.
- Love splurging on the people he love.
- He stayed to himself at work but once he was approached, he had the biggest welcoming smile.
- [ ] Last month we asked each other what we wanted to do for our birthdays and we both said Disney land. Call me crazy but it’s giving twins hahaha. I hope my gen Z humor doesn’t ruin my mini speech. I look forward to even planning the trip and thinking what ride he would’ve loved or what souvenir he would’ve brought back home. Condolences to his family and friends 🌸. I can’t imagine losing my sibling or let alone a child of mine.

My fellow Gemini ☐ sincerely, Yakhame m.

“ I met Jeremy and his family around 20 years ago in church. I remember Jeremy as a kind, sweet, shy, respectful, and always smiling child. My daughter played with the Johnson's kids and got along with all of them. I can remember them all helping each other study for tests and helping with homework while the adults prayed in the sanctuary. I learned so many nuggets of Godly wisdom from this family. I pray that the Lord encamps His Holy Spirit around you through these next hours, days, weeks, months and years. Jeremy will be missed but not forgotten. Love you all and you are in my prayers.
