“ I am sending my sympathy to all her family. Stephen, Emma and Ducky told me how very good you were in taking care of your mama. YOU CERTAINLY WILL HAVE STARS IN YOUR CROWN.

“ Jo Anna and I went to Danville High School together in Danville, Kentucky, She was ther cutest little thing you ever saw, We kept in touch until recently and today her sister-in-law called and told me she had died. She had many joys in her life but also much sadness. She lost her husband, Eddie, when he was young. She called me when she was grieving for her youngest child, Chris who had died. Her son, Stephen, took care of her and was so good to her. I just loved Jo Anna.
