“ I'm so sorry for your loss Ms. Seun. May the wonderful memories of your Mama sustain you during these challenging times. Peace and prayers for you and your family. Much love, Susan Carrington

“ I cannot believe she has gone so soon. Her memory cannot be forgotten in a jiffy. A dedicated woman of God; a disciplinarian; a hard working woman who was committed to upgrading herself. A counsellor par excellence, drawing from her experience of life when counselling others. She made lemonade from the lemon of life. You never gave us any trouble when we were pastoring you. You were committed to God's work at the children/teenagers department. Your children were raised in the way of the Lord and they were there for you with their spouses when you needed them. Myself and my family will miss you and what you represent in our family. We have the consolation that we will see you in the resurrection morning. Iya Dammy/Subomi sun re o.

“ Titilayo oladunjoye-
Rest on mummy, we love you so much ma, I can't forget how you taught us and groomed us in the ways of the Lord. You instilled the fear of God in us. I can never forget you ma.
Thank you so much ma.
Rest on ma.

“ *Ayodeji Oluwafemi Demola Johnson-Thanks God for a life well lived. You raise the generation of champions for the Lord. Thanks for been that children coordinator that saw the need in raising Us for God. Rest on Mummy Williams.
We would continue to be a proof that you came to this world.*
